

Racial Justice:

Yesterday Today Tomorrow

Join us as we ALL look at these issues together using all of our senses.

Hearing: "The Yesterday" of Racial Justice
Keynote speaker: Fraser Smith, author of "Here Lies Jim Crow: Civil Rights in Maryland" Senior News Analyst at WYPR and Daily Record columnist. Copies of his book will be available at the event.

Seeing: "Mirrors of Privilege: Making Whiteness Visible" is a brilliant documentary featuring the experiences of white women and men working in today's world who have worked to gain insight into what it means to challenge notions of racism and white supremacy in the United States. Catechists can receive 1A CEU clock hours.

Simple Movements: Theatre Action Group (TAG) activities aimed at meeting the needs of all participants for interaction, dialogue, critical thinking, action and fun, as they look at the topic of racial justice—with the goal of moving us to action in the future. Catechists can receive 1C CEU clock hours.

"White People" and "People of Color" have different issues surrounding racism and its history.
